

Optimal setback options

We recommend that the Public Toolbox is placed in a location that allows a bicycle to access it either perpendicular or horizontal to the wall. It is possible to mount a pump or wheel chock within this setback region.